Report of Independent Accountants

To the Member of Wall Street Advisors LLC

In our opinion, the accompanying statement of financial condition presents fairly, in all material respects, the financial position of Wall Street Advisors LLC (the "Company") at December 31, 2002 in conformity with accounting principles generally accepted in the United States of America. This financial statement is the responsibility of the Company's management; our responsibility is to express an opinion on this financial statement based on our audit. We conducted our audit of this statement in accordance with auditing standards generally accepted in the United States of America, which require that we plan and perform the audit to obtain reasonable assurance about whether the financial statement is free of material misstatement. An audit includes examining, on a test basis, evidence supporting the amounts and disclosures in the financial statement, assessing the accounting principles used and significant estimates made by management, and evaluating the overall financial statement presentation. We believe that our audit provides a reasonable basis for our opinion.

Notes to Statement of Financial Condition

1. Organization and Business

Wall Street Advisors LLC (the "Company"), is a wholly owned subsidiary of Wall Street Access, LLC which was formed during 2001 as part of the reorganization of its parent, Wall Street Access Corporation. The Company provides money management and investment advisory services for high net worth individuals and other entities. The Company is a broker-dealer formed under the Securities Exchange Act and is registered with the Securities and Exchange Commission ("SEC"). The Company is a member of the National Association of Securities Dealers, Inc. ("NASD").

2. Summary of Significant Accounting Policies

Securities transactions and commissions

Transactions in securities owned are recorded on a trade date basis. The clearing operations for the Company's transactions are provided by one broker, on a fully disclosed basis, pursuant to a clearing agreement.

Cash and cash equivalents

The Company considers all highly liquid investments with original maturities of 90 days or less to be cash equivalents.

Use of estimates in the preparation of financial statements

The preparation of financial statements in conformity with generally accepted accounting principles requires management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets and liabilities and disclosure of contingent assets and liabilities at the date of the financial statements. Actual results could differ from those estimates.

3. Investment in non-marketable securities

The investment in non-marketable securities is carried at cost. There is no market on a securities exchange and no independent publicly quoted market for these securities and consequently the estimated value may differ from the value that would have been used had a ready market existed for the investment, and the difference could be material.

4. Related Party Transactions

Receivable from affiliate of $8,241 and payable to affiliate of $53,927 represents amounts due from an affiliate and amounts owed to an affiliated entity for amounts which were paid on behalf of Wall Street Advisors, Inc. Certain services related to communications, occupancy and other administrative expenses are provided to the Company by affiliated entities at no charge.

5. Net Capital and Customer Reserve Requirements

As a registered broker-dealer and member of the NASD, the Company is subject to the SEC's Uniform Net Capital Rule 15c3-1 (the "Rule"). The Rule requires that the Company maintain minimum net capital, as defined, of 6.67% of aggregate indebtedness or $5,000, whichever is greater.

The Company had net capital at December 31, 2002 of $127,626, which exceeded its net capital requirement by $122,075.

The Company is considered an introducing broker with a fully disclosed clearing relationship with another firm and does not maintain custody of customer funds or securities. Accordingly, the Company has been granted an exemption by the NASD from the computation for determination of reserve requirements for broker-dealers under subparagraph (k)(2)(ii) of the SEC Rule 15c3-3.
